SUCCESSFUL AT HOME

Contributed.
Edmonton Tent of the Maccabees held a very successful and pleasant open meeting at Hourigan's Hall on last Thursday evening. The attendance was about seventy-five. The following programme was rendered: Songs by Messrs. Whitely, Almie, Leggett, McLeod, Watkins and Brant. Instrumental selections were also given. A tunc was also provided by the committee in charge which was done justly so. Several applications for membership were also secured.

The next regular meeting will be held on Thursday evening, May 29th, at which a class of new members will be initiated. All visiting Maccabees are cordially invited to attend the meetings of the local tent. Commander Day expects to have the local tent head the list of large tents in Alberta within a very short time and according to the numbers of applications being received at each meeting it is expected that the tent will become the largest in Western Canada.

People of the Canadian West From the Free Press.

In 1871 the population of that region vaguely described as lying between Lake Superior and the Rocky Mountains was only 19,000. Today it considerably exceeds half a million. When the last spike was driven in the C. P. R. railway in the autumn of 1886, spanning the continent and making settlement more possible the great influx began, and has maintained a steady increase from year to year. It received an added impetus a few years ago when American and British attention began to turn to Western Canada, and suddenly awoke to its vast resources and mighty expanses of fertile soil. This impetus, which amounts to a moderate boom, is not the result of any sudden, impulsive, El Dorado suggestion, but is the natural effect of the persistent campaign of advertisement that has been carried on for years. The tide of immigration is higher now than ever before, and rises month by month and week by week with a regularity. Railways and steamship lines are unable to handle the traffic. Special after special brings his multitude of eager, hardy homeseekers. Freight trains, heavily laden with settlers' effects, crowd the tracks. The steamships leaving Europe for Canada are overcrowded, and many, unable to secure passage for Canada direct, come via New York and Boston. Every passage, it is said, is booked on steamers leaving Great Britain for the next four months to come, still they come, and promise to come, their faces turned westward where free farms and freedom are to be had. The steady increase of the immigration with its recent expansion is a matter of deep interest. In 1897 the arrivals numbered 108,641. In four years they had risen to 38,065, and last year saw 72,888 new settlers in the country. Based on an estimate on a comparison of arrivals this year to date with those during the same periods of last year, the totals for 1903 should reach the modest little total of 130,000. A perpetual of the following table of arrivals, extending back for two years, will make plain this gradual increase:

	1901	1902	1903.
January	474	1,166	2,811
February	982	1,655	2,869
March	4,263	7,248	12,267
April	5,595	9,855	20,000
May	5,163	10,652

The last month, May has always been the banner month in immigration, so that the rush for this year may be said to be only commencing. April, in round figures, represents 29,000, and May, if it increases proportionately as 29,000. After this the should bring 29,000. After this the rush has usually receded slowly, but this year it is probable it will last much longer than it has previously done.

STRATHONA

Plainsdealer, May 8th.—The Strathcona Board of Trade has ordered a large quantity of sugar beet seed of the best varieties which will be distributed as widely as possible among farmers throughout the district with a view to securing a large number of samples for tests, that the suitability of our soil and climate for the beet sugar industry may be shown to capitalists beyond this shadow, of a doubt, it is proposed to offer prizes for the samples which when tested by the government show the highest excellence in the matter of sugar content.

The Townsite Co. is having several of their subdivided blocks surveyed and the lots are going like hot cakes.

The Moose Jaw Signal mentions that Mr. Isaac Gowie, for many years a resident of Edmonton, but now agent of the Canadian West Land Co. at Moose Jaw, is the author of a very comprehensive pamphlet on the Canadian West, showing prominently the three prairie zones, viz.: ranching, wheat growing and mixed farming, and giving recent and reliable information on each. The book serves as a good guide to parties making selection of the district best suited to their requirements.

Building operations in Strathcona are progressing rapidly. A look over the town from the top of Ritchie's new elevator yesterday revealed about forty new buildings erected or in course of erection this spring.

Seven tenders were received for the building of the Imperial Bank's new block in Strathcona. They have been forwarded to the head office in Toronto for award.

The Building Boom

is now on and the demand for lumber is very keen. If you want to get materials on the ground in time for your building you had better order from us at once. The undecided man puts things off. He always waits until tomorrow so he can change his mind. Then he waits until the next day so he can change it back again. In the meantime, lumber gets scarce, prices go up and he blames the lumber combine. Alberta lumber is scarce now, but we are shipping in B.C. lumber as fast as we can get it, at the rate of a car a day, and we can take care of your order if you give us a chance.

THE INFLUENCE OF THE WEST

The following is that part of the budget speech of the finance minister in which he alludes to the consideration accorded Western interests in maintaining the revenue tariff against the demands of the Manufacturing Association:

The Minister of Finance—I am delighted to have my views endorsed by my honorable friends opposite. It is not only necessary that we should take account of the way our opponent plays the game, but once in a while it may even be necessary, in exceptional circumstances, to meet him with his tactics. If that doctrine meets with the approval of my honorable friends opposite I am not disposed to complain. In a country of such vast extent as ours, a country of great territory, it is inevitable that there should be wide differences of opinion on questions of this character. There will be conflicts of opinion, and there will be conflicts of interests. There will be the extreme view on one side, and the extreme view on the other. We hold that it is the duty of the government not to yield to these extreme views on either side, but to endeavor to reconcile these views, in the hope that we may bring about a common action which the whole country can accept—a compromise, if you care to call it such. We appeal to the people of the different sections, each one to yield up something in order that we may reach a ground upon which all can act in harmony.

Our manufacturing friends have expressed a desire that the tariff should be kept out of politics. Sir, how are you going to keep the tariff out of politics if some of our manufacturing friends insist upon duties so high that they are sure to antagonize great masses of the people? Especially should we consider these things when we observe what is happening in our great west. The seed that has been sown in the last few years is bearing fruit. When we see immigrants flowing in to that country from all parts of the world, we cannot fail to observe the signs of the times. The power of control is passing from the east to the west. Great as is the prosperity of eastern and central Canada, greater still is the prosperity of the vast region lying west of Lake Superior. Ontario and the maritime provinces are losing members, the west is gaining members. The great population in the west is going to be a greater power in the future than it is at present. These western people, producing articles that depend for their value on the open markets of the world, would chafe under a system of high protective duties, and would unquestionably organize against it. Is it not better to meet these people in a spirit of compromise, and ask them to join us in a moderate tariff, rather than, by the adoption of a high tariff policy, array them against the manufacturing interests of the east? I say it would be in the interests of the manufacturers themselves to take account of these things. The best way you can help the manufacturers of Canada is to fill up the prairie regions of Manitoba and the Northwest with a prosperous and contented people, who will be consumers of the manufacture of goods of the east. But if, through the adoption of an extreme policy of protection which they would regard as burdensome to themselves, you were to undertake to impose rates of duties so excessive as to antagonize the prosperity of these people, then I say there will be an antagonism between the east and the west, and the result will be unfavorable to the up-building of Canada. Let us rather hold out the hand of encouragement to these people who come in and open up new homesteads in that land, let us adopt a policy under which the expenses of living will not be excessive, under which, in fact, living shall be as cheap as possible. As I have said, there has been extreme views on both sides and we have tried to avoid them. We have endeavored to give the industry a tariff at a stage, a tariff which, insofar as a tariff has an important factor in the development of Canada the last few years. The efforts we have made to reconcile conflicting interests, the willingness we have manifested to meet opposing interests and endeavor to reconcile them.

affords the best guarantee, that, in any future changes which may have to be made, the question will be approached in the same spirit and let us hope, with the same happy results.

PEOPLE OF THE NORTH WEST

Using the arrivals during the same three months, and classifying them as to their nationality, a rather interesting result is obtained.

	1901.	1902.	1903.
Canadians	2,598	3,349	4,788
British	110	1,780	4,222
German	183	816	2,200
United States	1,668	1,899	2,198
Scandinavian	76	658	1,310
R't'd Can'ns	403	580	601
Ruthenian	24	101	455
Italian	57	349	390
Hungarian	114	184	284
French	21	64	157
Other nationalities	205	1,284	1,237

To this may be added some 500 Americans who trekked it across the border and are not included in the totals. The unclassified nationalities include people from all climes and continents: Belgians, Finns, Persians, Swiss, Austrians, Dutch, etc. Of these 17,938 immigrants for the months of January, February and March, 11,650 were males, 3,061 females, and 3,227 children under twelve years of age. This disproportion of sexes will yet be a serious question, and every effort should be made to induce women to come in large numbers. Of these 3,227 women the majority are foreign, the foreigner, when he emigrates coming, as a rule, "holus bolus," while the women of the better classes are slow to change their abode. Especially is this true of the English immigration, which is almost entirely male. Though it may be said that more than one young man hopes to return for his "English Mary" or his London "Aunt," the Americans, however, are anxious to this rule, and almost invariably bring their families. In fact, most of them bring everything they have and are thus able to begin work at once under almost the same conditions as the "left."

It is impossible to classify these people to say where each race or class settles, for they are pretty generally spread over the country. Occasionally they hold together in some extent by accident or design, as the Bavarians on the Saskatchewan, the Nestorians at Yorkton, the Americans from Ansel to Regina, etc. The English have shown a tendency to get far west as have many of the easterners, but otherwise the settler is apt to locate anywhere from Winnipeg to Edmonton. The declared destinations show Manitoba and the Territories to be pretty evenly divided on the bulk of the immigration, though it may be noticed that hundreds of young men who are now in Manitoba working with farmers will ultimately move west when they are ready to take up land. Of the number who came in for the first three months of this year the Territories got 9,003, Manitoba 7,341, British Columbia 1,133, Ontario 560, United States 334, the Yukon 36, and 531 were uncertain of their destination. During the last month none went to the States.

It is an auspicious fact, seeing that nine-tenths of these people intend to farm, that for these three months 8,331 described themselves as agriculturists and 1,114 as general laborers. There were 723 mechanics, 47 clerks, traders, etc., 129 miners, 169 female servants, and 6,590 unclassified—4,113 of these latter were women and children.

Although the Americans are as far as farming is concerned the cream of the immigration because of their intimate knowledge of the west, their farming experience and outfit, the class of English settlers promises to do well and relieve any apprehension of the fearful test the west is Americanized. Although few of the English colonists will go to do railroad work, they are having an indirect effect in creating a supply of men for this very necessary need by crowding out the foreigner from farm positions. The latter will in no wise be the loser as they make excellent railway construction laborers and will find ample employment in that field.

Japan and Russia
Victoria, B. C., May 5. — Advice were received by the steamer Olympia, which arrived yesterday from Yokohama, that the Chinese are hurrying from New-Chwang in alarm, as the result of the dispatch of Japanese and British warships in consequence of the non-evacuation of New-Chwang by the Russians. Residents of the Chinese ports are hurrying their valuables to Peking, Chin, Chee Foo and Shanghai, fearing war. The whole trend of the news received by the Olympia to April 16, is of warlike preparations. Rush movements of warships of Japan and Russia would indicate that both are getting ready for hostilities over the Manchurian embroilment.

A Japanese military officer who has just returned from New-Chwang is quoted in the Jiji Shem Po as saying that, according to all appearances Russia is undoubtedly preparing for war in Manchuria and great alarm is felt at New-Chwang.

Despatches are published by Japanese papers to the effect that a state of siege has been declared by the Russian authorities at Taitien Whan, King Chow and thence to the Yalu river. Military maneuvers are taking place, involving much tent and field works. The Russians assert that the movement is attributable to the strained relations between Russia and Japan.

The Japan Herald has a despatch from Port Arthur that Russian troops have been dispatched to Amnokang, in Korea, and a Japanese warship has gone there.

The Hoochi publishes the significant report that a certain Japanese general has caused a notice to be issued to the reserves to be ready for mobilization. The Ashi says that Japanese and British warships have also been dispatched to the Yalu river. The Russian troops in Manchuria have been increased by an additional force which has been sent out on the pretext of replacing the troops.

took exception of these plain statements and demanded punishment of the professor, but nothing was done.

Sale of Railroad

Montreal, May 4. — Arrangements were completed today between the Canadian Pacific Railway and James Ross by which the C.P.R. receives the possession of the Calgary & Edmonton railway. The newly acquired line runs for 300 miles through what is regarded as the most fertile district of the Northwest Territories from Macleod to Calgary on the main line of the C.P.R., thence north to Edmonton. The price paid to Mr. Ross and those interested with him will, it is understood, be $8,000,000, a little more than $20,000 a mile.

The report submitted to the directors of the Canadian Pacific shows that it has during the last four years been earning a larger percentage than any equal distance of any other line in the west. The earning power is placed by the former owners at 50 per cent. The report submitted to the Canadian Pacific states it is at least 12 per cent. It is now intended that the line should be placed in first class condition.

A portion of the ROWLAND ESTATE, otherwise known as "THE SYNDICATE."

Plans and Prices can be seen at the Office on and after the date mentioned.

This is the closest and best property available, and the choicest in and about Edmonton. The furthest part is from 10 to 15 minutes from the post office. The property is eminently the people's portion: is not controlled by a policy of inertia dictated by "Hebraic Hatred." The surveys conform to existing ones, and the streets will be projected to their legitimate confines. Building Sites on the verge of the hill overlooking the mighty Saskatchewan, the foliage and verdure of whose banks is not exceeded by the fiercest tropics or softest Pacific scenes, abound. Prices will be uniform and moderate, tempered as a corrective of the present indefinite craze.

TERMS.—One third Cash. Balance 6 and 12 months, interest 8 per cent. Agreements $2 each, transfers free.

Macadams on the Warpath

MacAdams and Lowery have lost no time in getting after the Prior government for alleged misconduct. The first issue of their paper, the Ozone-gram, contains the following "bouquet of compliments."

"Speaking about odors, a glue factory would be a sweet-smelling aromatic retreat compared to the marble halls of British Columbia's stately capitol at the present time. All the incense burning of the subsidized press from hell to Babel can never fumigate the atmosphere which surrounds that Columbia and Western proposition. It is simply putrid. There have been few pages in the history of Canada—and God knows it is black enough in spots—that demonstrate such callous disregard for the sanctity of a public trust as the Prior government's attempt to divorce the province from this enormously valuable strip of soil land in Southeast Kootenay. As the story filters out from day to day through the proceedings of the investigation, the shamelessness of our representatives becomes more and more glaring. Had Wilmer Cleveland Wells, chief potlatch for the government, transferred the deeds for the Southeast Kootenay reserve to the Canadian Pacific every mine and smelter from the Alberta line to the Boundary camps would by that action have been bound in perpetuity to pay tribute to one of the other of two monopolies created by the folly of incompetent legislatures. Fortunately for this province the Prior gang is white-livered. The clamor of public indignation gave them back again, and they ceased."

But the worm has yet to be subjected to the calcium of public exposure. Not satisfied with a failure to turn these lands over to the Canadian Pacific, the cohorts of graft have allied themselves in an effort to steal the entire territory en bloc by the simple process of making applications wholesale for coal prospecting licenses. Already applications have been filed covering practically the entire reserve, and rumor has it that pretty nearly every member on both sides of the House is in on the grab.

All earthly evils have an end, and the finish of such rascally administration is in sight. What the people need is the facts; public indignation will do the rest. If the electorate of British Columbia fails at the next election to change beyond recognition the personnel of the legislature which sits at Victoria, then the people of British Columbia can get from future legislatures no worse than what is coming from them."

PROSPECTS BRIGHTER FOR FRANK

Blairmore, N. W. T., May 5.—The situation at Frank is greatly improved, so much so, that it is announced that the Canadian-American company will begin the work of reopening its mine. A large force of men will be put to work opening the old workings in two places and in addition the vein will be attacked at a point not hitherto worked. It is stated that the work will be pushed with all possible expedition with a view to resuming shipments as quickly as possible.

A party composed of both government and Canadian Pacific engineers and miners ascended the mountain today. The members report tonight that the part of the mountain regarded as the danger zone is in exactly the same condition as when observed the two previous days. A government engineer will go to the top of the mountain tomorrow to ascertain whether there is any movement of the mountain. Daily observations of these points by transit will be made to establish to a certainty whether there is any creeping going on. The observations are to continue until the end of the week, when the engineer will report to Premier Haultain the situation as he will have found it. That report is expected to settle the point as to whether there is any more danger in Frank.

It is chiefly expected that the report will result in the town being reopened very shortly. An encouraging feature of the situation is that the miners who were in the employ of the coal company are all staying here, expecting to return to work for the company. Superintendent Taylor, of the C.P.R., who has consistently maintained all along that there was no danger of another big slide, has sought and obtained instructions to resume the work of rebuilding the line. He stated this evening that he will have about three hundred rockmen and laborers at work on the new track in the morning. The wagon road around the slide being built by the government will be completed at noon tomorrow, and the transfer of mails and passengers will begin on Thursday. The weather changed for the better this morning, allaying for the time being fears of damage from flood.
